YOU is an initiative of UNESCO Ambassador Dr. h.c. Ute-Henriette Ohoven, who has been working voluntarily worldwide for 40 years to promote education and sustainable development.

In official partnership with UNESCO, the YOU Foundation has been committed since 2002 to equal opportunities, quality education for all, and the implementation of the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) – in line with UNESCO initiatives “Leave No One Behind,” “Greening Education,” and “Transforming Education.”

Through holistic, innovative project solutions with a multi-approach strategy, YOU specifically strengthens communities, aligns with their needs, and creates long-term, sustainable impact.

Impact driven for Self-Help

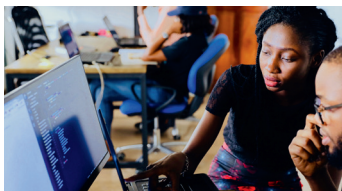

To pursue the big picture in order to achieve sustainable, humane development for all, to enable a self-determined, dignified life and improved chances for all people!

Global areas of focus:

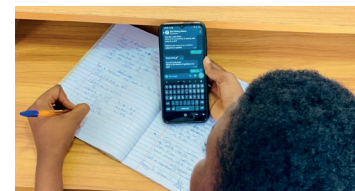

- Quality and inclusive education as a central focus
- Greening education and improvement of resilience
- Improvement of income generation through skills
- Food security in times of climate change
- Access to healthcare
- Measures against malnutrition & undernourishment
- WaSH (water, sanitation & hygiene)
- Access to affordable and green energy
- Resource conservation / promotion of circular economy models
- Promotion and protection of human rights
- Use of digital solutions and high-quality educational AI to maximize impact.
